

HUNT & HOST

Hunt & Host is a home decor and DIY blog focused on upcycling thrifted items to make your home gorgeous with personality and flare at a cost that won't break the bank. I love to mix old and new, put my spin on things and share life along the way. The readers at Hunt & Host are predominately U.S. women aged 35-65 with a strong affinity for home decor, gardening, crafting and lifestyle trends. I keep the projects and conversation engaged and flowing here with gorgeous professional quality photography, creativity, honesty and consistency.

As Seen:

Flea Market Decor feature June/July 2018 issue, Upcycled Style, ReLoved Magazine home feature, Country Sampler Farmhouse Style, Country Sampler Christmas Decorating, Life:Beautiful blogger to watch, The New Pioneer Magazine, Hometalk, Apartment Therapy, Huffington Post, Crosswalk.com, iBelieve.com, Remodelaholic as well as many other home decor and DIY blog features. I also write a monthly column in our local paper the Eagle and appear monthly on our local magazine program, Brazos Valley Magazine.

When partnering with a brand it is of the utmost importance that I genuinely like and recommend the product I represent, my readers know and appreciate that. I go above and beyond to produce high quality, evergreen content that elicits engagement with my friends, my readers. You will find I always go beyond the required sharing parameters of a campaign because my goal is to get you the most exposure possible. I'd love to discuss your marketing goals and come up with a plan of action to help you reach them.
